Lori Christensen has over two decades of experience in law firm management and support in various capacities. Lori began her career working for a prominent financial institution as a member of the executive staff before entering the legal sector in the early 1990s. She has managed the offices of several prominent Cleveland law firms where she was responsible for virtually all aspects of office operations from office services, legal support, account receivables and collections to office technology.

Lori joined Hahn Loeser in 2006 where she quickly rose through the ranks to National Manager of the Construction and Real Estate Practice Groups; the Firm's two largest practice groups. Lori was later elevated to Senior Manager of Operations in 2024 and continues to manage over 40 lawyers across all offices from coast to coast. Her job responsibilities include facilitation and approval of client intake, conflict review and evaluation, client development, coordination of industry associations and events, client and industry-based training, and managing practice group account receivables and collection. Lori's success in this position has led the way for positions in the Firm's other national practice groups.

Since Lori assumed her previous role of Practice Group Manager, the Construction Group has doubled in size and been recognized by Best Lawyers as a Tier 1 National Practice Group and by Construction Executive Magazine as a Top 50 Construction Practice Group in the U.S.
